Principal's Announcements

22nd Sunday
in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel reading, beautifully brings together the lessons of the first two readings—both Moses's counsel to obey the Law and James's call to genuine moral uprightness. The story unfolds as a controversy. The Pharisees challenge Jesus over the behavior of his disciples who are not following all of the ritual purity rules scrupulously. In specific, they are not washing their hands before eating. Yet Jesus does not condescend to even discuss handwashing at all. Instead, he sees through the Pharisees' smoke screen—the issue isn't really the issue—and challenges them in return. He accuses them of hypocrisy and stings them with an appropriate quote from Isaiah. When the charge sticks, that these Pharisees' interior spiritual attitudes do not line up with their showy external observances, Jesus makes a larger point. Essentially, he teaches the inner moral purpose of the ritual purity laws of the Old Covenant, while rescinding these laws for New Covenant believers: "Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile" (Mark 7:15). For Jesus, our moral status is not about what foods we eat, but about how we behave, how we act. It is possible that we could observe all kinds of trivial religious rules yet be living in grave sin in far more important matters. Jesus rattles off a list of serious sins, "evil thoughts, unchastity, theft, murder" and so on (vv. 21-22). These sins, he argues, come from within our hearts and they are what make us impure before God. To be truly holy, we must change both our behavior and our thoughts.

This week the teachers and I will participate in a few professional development trainings to assist us in preparing for the new school year. Students new to St. Agnes Cathedral School will have the opportunity to participate in a new student orientation program on Thursday, September 2nd. Students in grades 3-8 will participate in their program from 9-10 A.M. Students in grades K-2 will participate in their program from 11 A.M. – 12 P.M. New students in grades 1-8 should wear their school uniform to their orientation program. If your child's uniform is not delivered in time for the orientation program, he/she may wear his/her own appropriate clothing for the program. Kindergarten students should wear their play clothes. Arrival will be conducted using our morning drop-off system. Please enter the back school lot from Hempstead Avenue, following the instructions of our Morning Security Team, at the following times:

8: 40 A.M. for the 3-8 program and 10:40 A.M. for the K-2 program

After you drop off your child, please feel free to park your car in any open spot on the street, or in the Cathedral Parking lot, and join us for a casual meet and greet in the school's Newman Cafeteria.

Your children will be dismissed to you from the front of the building on Clinton Ave. Please line up at the following doors.

K and 1: Carlin Doors on Clinton Ave.

Grade 5: Newman Breeze Way Doors

Grade 2: Carlin Breeze Way Doors

Grades 6 and 7: Newman Doors on Clinton

Grades 3 and 4: Main Entrance Doors on Clinton

Kindergarten parents, that means, students with last name L start on Thursday, September 9th and students with last name K start Friday, September 10th. We will have social distancing in place and limit the seating to 6 people to a table. Hope to see you there.

St. Agnes Knights of Columbus needs your support

Please support St. Agnes Knights of Columbus Council #2548 in their effort to fund a state-of-the-art ALGO® 5 - newborn hearing screening equipment for the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU) at Mercy Hospital.

Why is this important?

In New York State, all babies are required to have their hearing checked before going home. The purpose of this screening is to check a newborn's ability to hear and to help identify babies who might require further testing.

This equipment is a much needed resource for Mercy Hospital and it would allow the staff to assess every case more accurately and efficiently, offering each baby the best quality of life possible.

If you would like to be part of this gift that keeps on giving, please consider making a donation today!

For an immediate impact, send your donation to Venmo @kofc2548 or mail a check payable to the St. Agnes Knights of Columbus to:

Phil Paoli, Grand Knight
18 Buckingham Road
Rockville Centre, NY 11570
(516) 507-7793

The Mercy Hospital NICU has been and continues to be a preferred partner for our council's fundraising efforts. Thank you for your generosity.

For every $1.00 donated the St. Agnes Council will donate $3.00!

Group Luncheon

After an 18 month hiatus due to the Covid-19 Pandemic, we are again planning to meet for our quarterly luncheon on September 8, 2021. This invitation goes out to all current members of ROMEIO and anyone who would like to join us. Of course, we recognize that some may not yet feel comfortable attending at this time, but please know you are welcome to join us at any of our luncheons in the future.

Are you a ROMEIO? We are an association of St. Agnes parishioners that has been meeting for lunch for over 30 years. You do not need to be old or retired to join us for a delicious lunch, friendship and good conversation. You will have the opportunity to interact with some of the men that we pray with at church, but never had the chance to meet. We get together once a quarter and there are no long-term commitments or requirements to join. Our next luncheon is Wednesday, September 8th at 12:00 Noon, at MacArthur Park Restaurant, Rockville Centre (Dutch treat). Come join us and bring a friend. For more information or to RSVP, please contact Tom Nofi via phone: (516) 784-6046 or via email: tomrvc@gmail.com.
