Principal's Announcements

The readings from Genesis and this Gospel together show how Jesus claims to have greater authority than Moses, which would have shocked the Pharisees. When the Pharisees question him concerning divorce, he effectively reestablishes the divine law concerning the sacrament of marriage from the very beginning. He explains that Moses allowed divorce for the hardness of their hearts.

This would have been a shocking assertion to the Jews, since God gave the law to Moses. It is no wonder that the Jews approached Jesus with this question, "By what authority do you do these things?" The fact that Jesus is here changing part of the Mosaic law reveals that he is the "prophet" foretold by Moses, "I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kinsmen and will put my words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him." (Dt. 18:18)

The Jews identified this "prophet" with the coming Messiah (see John 6:14; 7:40-41). Interestingly enough, after reaffirming the indissolubility of the marriage covenant by citing Genesis 2:24, Jesus turns immediately to the question of children. Just as God had said "Be fertile and multiply" to Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 1: 28), so now Jesus, after restoring marriage to its proper dignity as an indissoluble bond, says "Let the children come to me and do not hinder them. It is to just such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.

This lesson is profound, because it reveals the essential importance of the unitive and procreative ends of marriage, and through this union, children will be brought into the world and then baptized for the Kingdom of God. To accept this teaching, one must become like a little child oneself. A child is one who trusts his or her parents to provide every need, to heal every wound. The Father hopes that we will trust ourselves to Him like little children.

This week the St. Agnes Cathedral School TACHS Prep Classes begin.

Math classes are offered on the following Tuesday mornings from 7:15 to 8:15 A.M.: 10/5, 10/12, 10/19, 10/26, and 11/2.

ELA classes are offered on the following Wednesday mornings from 7:15-8:15 A.M.: 10/6, 10/13, 10/20, 10/27, and 11/3.

Wednesday, October 6th is Confirmation Day for the Class of 2021.

I am looking forward to seeing our recent graduates on this special day!

Pray for Vocations

As we all know, the Catholic Church needs more priests, as well as religious brothers and sisters. We encourage you to pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life, especially from within our parish and our school.

Suicide Prevention Resources

Suicide is a major public health problem and a leading cause of death in the United States. The effects of suicide go beyond the person who acts to take his or her life: it can have a lasting effect on family, friends and communities. If you are thinking about suicide, are worried about a friend or loved one, or would like emotional support, the Lifeline network is available 24/7 across the United States.

National Suicide Prevention Lifeline: 1-800-273-TALK (8255) or Crisis Text Line: Text "Got5" to 741-741.

Website: suicidepreventionlifeline.org.
