The Rockville Centre St. Patrick's Parade Committee

The Rockville Centre St. Patrick's Parade Committee first stepped off on March 22, 1997, and has over the years become one of the best-attended and widely supported parades outside of the famous New York City St. Patrick's Day Parade. The Rockville Centre St. Patrick's Parade Committee hosts a number of fundraising events and activities throughout the year. Every year the funds raised through these events are distributed after parade day to three worthy charities—one local, one national, and one Irish. Since the parade's inception in 1997, over $1.4 million dollars has been distributed to 70 separate charities. As we gear up for our 26th year of fun and fundraising, the Parade Committee is preparing a host of wonderful community events in the coming months, including our Kick-off party at R.J. Daniels on October 1 and our annual Taste of RVC on January 27, 2023 all leading up to the 2023 St. Patrick's Parade on March 25, 2023. We're looking for new recruits with fresh ideas and a passion for helping others (while having tons of fun!) Whether you have a little time to spare or lots of energy to share, we'd love to have you! Please join us at MacArthur Park on Wednesday, September 21st at 7:30 p.m. for our first general committee meeting.

Focus on Religious Freedom

Today We Mourn and Honor All Who Perished on 9/11/2001

Twenty-one years ago today, when terrorists destroyed the twin towers of the iconic World Trade Center, they attacked not only New York City, but the idea of America itself as founded on the principles of Freedom, Faith, Family, Life, Limited-government, Law and Authentic Goodness. (FLAG). Thousands died that day, not as combatants but as Americans, living the liberties of our Republic under a Constitution based on rights from our Creator. These Americans lived, worked and visited this city where the rule of law and goodwill toward others prevailed in spite of human imperfections. Hundreds of them chose as their life's work to rush toward danger when help was needed. On Sept.11, they perished in harm's way.

We pray for them in grateful remembrance. We pray for comfort for their loved ones as a nation still grieving the loss of each one of them. Let our lives reflect respect and appreciation for the liberties they had no chance to defend that day.

If the liberties they lived are to prevail, our children and grandchildren must be taught the bedrock of our liberties is inalienable rights from our Creator. The natural rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness guided our founders in their construction of a Constitution written for "ages and millions yet unborn" ...a Constitution not bounded by culture or by technology but bounded by the immutable nature of man and his reliance on God.

Those Americans who died on Sept. 11,2001 lived in the freedom to follow their faith or to choose no faith. They were not forced to behave or worship according to the dictates of any government. They were not subject to an all-powerful culture or government selecting winners and losers, rich and poor, respected and vilified. We honor them by living those freedoms and insuring them for their loved ones

As we remember the joy of their lives and the anguish of their loss, we pray for the repose of their souls in the comforting arms of the Savior of us all. May they rest in peace and may we protect and preserve the liberties for which they were so grievously attacked.

*"Hold on, my friends, to the Constitution and to the Republic for which it stands. Miracles do not cluster and what has happened once in 6,000 years may not happen again.
Hold on to the Constitution, for if the American Constitution should fall, there will be anarchy throughout the world." -Daniel Webster, Lawyer and Statesman*

DRAWING STRENGTH FROM OUR LADY OF SORROWS BY KIMBERLY HAHN

Speaker and author Kimberly Hahn, wife of Dr. Scott Hahn and mother of six, is a convert to the Catholic Faith. Although honoring Mary was difficult for her to understand initially, she began to encounter Mary's loving guidance in little ways on a daily basis. In this presentation, Kimberly reflects on the joys and sorrows that Mary prayerfully experienced during her time on earth, and shares how her example leads us closer to Christ.

Principal's Announcements

24th Sunday of Ordinary Time

The theme of this week's Gospel reflection is "Lost and Found." Do you remember a time when you lost something, perhaps a possession of great importance? When we lose something of high value, we search and search until we finally find it. And the discovery brings such a sense of relief. The greater the value of what was lost, the more we rejoice in finding it.

Three times, Jesus uses this theme of something valuable being lost and found as the backdrop for his message in the Gospel reading today: a shepherd losing one of his sheep, a woman losing a coin, a father losing a son. Jesus uses these analogies in a personal way to describe God's own seeking us out when we are lost and separated from him by sin: all of heaven rejoices when even one sinner is found and returns to God. That is the kind of rejoicing that happens in heaven for us! But the analogy doesn't end there. We can find incredible gratitude stirring up in our hearts when we think of the ways God has pursued us, and found us when we were lost. The more lost we were, the deeper our gratitude should be. Moreover, we should share the Lord's heart for those who are lost. Once we've been found, God calls us to share in his desire to see others found and restored in relationship with him.

God of love we place in your loving arms the thousands of innocent lives that were lost on that unforgettable morning of September 11, 2001. We also remember the courage of the countless men and women who put their lives at risk in order to rescue, alleviate and bring solace to the afflicted. Help us to continue to work for a world free from every form of hatred, violence and ignorance. May terrorism - in all its forms - disappear from the face of the earth. Amen

The first week of school is in the books. As we enter the second week, the school children will continue to learn their routines and dig into their academic studies. Please join the Mothers' Club for their Welcome Mass at 7:30 PM on Monday Sept. 12th in the Cathedral. Following Mass, they will have their General Meeting in the Parish Center.

PRAYER FOR OUR TROOPS

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
 Protect them as they protect us.
 Bless them and their families
 for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need.
 And give us peace.
 I ask this in the name of Jesus,
 Our Lord and Savior. Amen

Kindly call the Rectory Office at 766-0205 if you know of anyone that is on this list and has returned home.
