STEWARDSHIP

A Way of Life

Stewardship Reflection

In today's Second Reading, Paul, Silvanus and Timothy ask for prayers so that they may spread God's Word even faster among the people.

Living Stewardship . . . Pillar of Prayer

As Stewards of the Faith, we may not always be able to go out and spread the Word of God to the whole world. However, we do have the ability to pray for those who work tirelessly to build up God's church throughout the world.

Parish Outreach

Dear Friends,

As we begin preparations for the beautiful American feast of Thanksgiving. I am asking for your assistance in helping those less fortunate.

The following pantry items are needed to complete Thanksgiving baskets: turkey stuffing, cranberry sauce, canned: yams, white potatoes, green beans, gravy, corn, carrots and peas, marinara sauce, pasta, red and black Goya beans, rice cereals, canned fruits and juices, macaroni and cheese, and tuna fish.

Since our freezer space is limited, it would be beneficial for us to distribute the turkeys to our clients on an on-going basis as they are received. In these times of economic instability, your turkey donations and/or supermarket gift cards to purchase turkeys, etc. would be greatly appreciated.

God Bless you for your thoughtfulness and continued support of Parish Outreach.

Love, Sr. Kathleen

What started as a school with 40 students in a shed has grown to HELP Primary School for 550 children who otherwise would not be educated.

Help bring hope and education to the people of Masese, Uganda this year.

Principal's Announcements

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus says that God is "not God of the dead, but of the living" (Luke 20:38). You might think that's a pretty obvious statement. But it has profound implications for how we live as Christians because this reality underlies something at the heart of Catholic teaching—the Communion of the Saints.

The saints, those who have died and gone before us in faith, remain connected to us through Jesus Christ. They aren't detached spirits floating about in some mystical realm but fellow members of Christ's body who remain deeply concerned about God's plan for salvation here on earth. They have been through the same struggles we have, and they now stand before God's throne in heaven, cheering us on as we live out our lives and missions here on earth.

They are alive in the body of Christ, just as we are. Because they are alive in Christ, we can ask them to pray for us and intercede for us. This is our basic understanding of the Communion of Saints—through Jesus, we are all "in communion" with each other. We can ask the saints, as our brothers and sisters in heaven, to lift us up to our God and intercede on our behalf. The readings for this week reaffirm that belief by reminding us that God is indeed the God of the living those of us still on earth as well as those who now live directly in the Divine Presence.

On Monday, November 7th the students in the Academic Advanced and Academic Enrichment classes will participate in the Math Olympiad.

There is a Service Club Meeting on Monday, November 7th for Grades 7 and 8 in the Carlin Cafeteria. Pick up is from the school at 4 P.M.

The Traveling Wilderness Museum will be here at St. Agnes on Tuesday, November 8th. Mr. Ted Strickroth will conduct an interactive assembly program for the 4th Graders on the Eastern Woodland Cultures who lived on Long Island.

On Wednesday, November 9th the School Board is hosting an Open Meeting at 7:30 P.M. in the Parish Center. Please join the School Board and me, as we introduce the newest members of the Board, review the school's spring 2022 NYS test results, disseminate information about the new supplementary religion series, Theology of the Body, and learn about the Board's newest initiatives.

The 7th graders will participate in a field trip to the Cradle of Aviation in Garden City on Wednesday, November 9th. They will have the opportunity to explore the museum as well as participate in a workshop in which they will learn where astronauts sleep while in space, what they wear, eat, and what are some of the hazards they face in space.

On Thursday, November 10th, our Kindergarten Classes are honoring the Veterans in their lives by hosting a special Thank You program for them in their classrooms. Thank you, Veterans, for all you did and continue to do to help protect us!

School is closed on Friday, November 11 in observance of Veterans Day. Due to this, the students will attend Mass on Thursday, November 10th.

Father, bless our veterans and all who serve our nation defending our freedom. For those who bravely gave their lives, grant them eternal rest. For those who are serving, give them courage. For those who served, we offer our gratitude. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen

Happy Veterans Day!

Principal

Focus on Religious Freedom

Some Good News for Religious Freedom

A California judge has ruled in favor of a Christian cake designer in the latest court decision regarding the conflict between religious freedom and same-sex marriage.⁽¹⁾ This is the latest in a series of court decisions over several years regarding wedding vendors such as cake designers, florists, photographers and artists who refuse to use their creative talents for same-sex ceremonies because of their biblically based belief that marriage is only between a man and a woman.

The evidence showed that the baker, Cathy Miller, both employs and serves LGBT people but that she has a long-standing policy for refusing to bake cakes that violate her Christian beliefs.⁽²⁾ "The State asks this court to compel Miller to use her talents to design and create a cake she has not yet conceived with the knowledge that her work will be displayed in a celebration of a marital union her religion forbids," wrote the Superior Court Judge. "For this court to force such compliance would do violence to the essentials of Free Speech guaranteed under the First Amendment."⁽³⁾

Some Bad News for Religious Freedom

A Colorado Christian baker, Jack Phillips, who won a partial victory of 7-2 at the US Supreme Court in 2018 when he declined to create a wedding cake for a same-sex couple, is now on trial for refusing to design a transgender birthday cake for a woman who requested a specialized cake in honor of her gender transition. Phillips' attorney from Alliance Defending Freedom explained that forcing him to create a message contrary to his religious beliefs violates his right to free speech. Phillips also objects to making cakes with other messages he opposes, including Halloween items.⁽⁴⁾

"It's one thing to be sued repeatedly; it's another to watch your family suffer harassment and face death threats, be forced to lay off longtime employees, and lose a substantial part of your business," reads a statement from Alliance Defending Freedom (ADF).⁽⁵⁾ "No American should be bullied or banished from the marketplace simply for living and working consistently with their faith," ADF stated. "Opponents of religious freedom want to strip away our freedom to live and work consistently with our deeply held beliefs.... Praise God that Jack refused to give up his freedom without a fight. He knows it's not just his own religious freedom on the line it's yours too."⁽⁶⁾

One Family in Mission - Building a Community of FAITH HOPE & LOVE

"God's love calls us to move beyond fear. We ask God for the courage to put our faith, hope and love to use so that the world will become the place in which we wish to live."
- Pope Francis

Laura Phelps is a national women's speaker, writer, Sandy Hook survivor and social media contributor at Walking with Purpose. Her first book, Victorious Secret: Everyday Battles And How To Win Them (2018, OSV) shows women how to put on their spiritual armor, face the daily battle, and win. In her newest book, Sweet Cross: A Marian Guide To Suffering (2021, OSV), Laura shows men and women how to step out of the fear of suffering, and to look at their cross in a whole new way.... No matter her role, her mission remains the same:

....meet women where they are and offer a safe place to talk about Jesus and the difference He makes.

Laura has a passion for creating authentic community, with Jesus at its center, and speaks in a relatable, honest way. She generously shares the pain of her life, offering others the hope and healing she has found through Jesus and Mary. We are confident that Laura will speak to the hearts of all the women who attend & all will undoubtedly walk away from her talk feeling lighter, stronger, and not so alone.
