STEWARDSHIP A Way of Life

Stewardship Reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells his Apostles that He is the Way, the Truth and the Life.

Living Stewardship . . . Pillar of Formation

As Christians, we live in a world that is constantly trying to guide us in a way opposed to Christ. We are faced with decisions that can either help us stay on the narrow path or lead us astray. We have two options: to follow Christ, whether popular or not, or we can do as Pilate did, listen to the crowds and turn our backs on Christ.

Praying the Rosary

On Monday, May 1st, at 7:30 pm, we will again honor Our Blessed Mother Mary by saying the rosary every night during the month of May. We will use the Fatima Rosary format, where the leader will say the first part of The Our Father, Hail

Mary, etc., and the responder to will recite the second part of the prayers. All other participants are requested to pray in silence, as the only voices heard are the leader and responder. We also still need volunteers to help as leaders and responders. To access the rosary, we will use the free conference call phone in system, the same system used by Bishop Koenig to say the Rosary at the start of the pandemic. It can be accessed using any phone (including a house phone, with or without a speaker) and information to say the Rosary is as follows: Dial....720-843-2916 and you will be prompted to enter the access code; Access code....6484347#...and then you will be asked to announce your name....You are now part of the Rosary. In order to mute or unmute, you will need to enter *6. During the Rosary, only leaders and responders will be unmuted. We hope you can join us on May 1st, at 7:30 to honor our Blessed Mother Mary. If you have any questions, would like any additional information or to volunteer please call or text Steve at 516-297-6597 or Neil 917-733-9567.

Principal's Announcements

The Way, The Truth, The Life

This week's Gospel points us toward the Ascension. Jesus tells the Apostles he is going to prepare a place for them "in my Father's house." We discover that Jesus is leaving to go to the Father, but he assures his disciples that this absence is only so that he may prepare a place for them. He promises, "I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be. Where I am going you know the way." The last part of that phrase is a reflection of Jesus's Incarnation and mission. He comes to us to dwell with us in time, in the flesh, and in so doing, wins us the ability to dwell with him in eternity.

What makes this astounding thing possible is Jesus's unity with the Father in the Holy Trinity. So much of what Jesus promised requires his divinity. Unless he was God, he couldn't save us from sin, he couldn't gain us entry to Heaven, and he couldn't give us his flesh to eat. This is what Jesus reveals in the second part of this passage when he says, "I am in the Father and the Father is in me."

Today is Catholic School Sunday. Thank you, parishioners of St. Agnes Cathedral Parish, for helping support St. Agnes Cathedral School. We love you and are keeping you in our thoughts and prayers.

This week our First Graders will sing some songs for a few special people in their lives. It is one small way for our First Graders to show them gratitude and to honor them.

On Tuesday, May 9th, the 7th Graders will pray the Rosary with the Knights of Columbus at 7:30 P.M. via phone conference. Please join in and pray with us!

Catholic Veterans at Walter Reed National Military Medical Center No Longer Guaranteed Catholic Pastoral Care

By Andrea M Piccotti-Bayer
National Catholic Register

Roughly 20% of our military personnel are Catholics. Thanks to an incomprehensible decision by the hospital, if they or their dependents end up at Walter Reed, they are no longer guaranteed ready access to the Church's sacraments. Just days before Holy Week, Walter Reed ended its contract for pastoral care with the Franciscan friars of Holy Name College in nearby Silver Spring, Maryland. Incredibly, they are being replaced by a secular government contractor that offers a wide range of specialists in “administrative and religious staffing.” In other words, they are not necessarily priests, and therefore cannot administer the sacraments often asked for by Catholics in the hospital: celebration of the Holy Mass, confession anointing of the sick, and last rites.

Archbishop for the Military Services Timothy Broglio, elected president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops last year, is not happy, to put it mildly – and the hospital should be warned that he is a formidable defender of the Catholics in his care. He says it is “incomprehensible” that essential pastoral care is being taken away from the sick and the aged and that the new contracting group “cannot provide the necessary service.”
