Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary

Time

Render Unto Caesar

How many times have you heard the expression, "Render unto Caesar that which is Caesar's and render unto God that which is God's"? Today's Gospel gives us the origin of the phrase.

The Pharisees, who have been attempting to trap Jesus for some time, have joined forces with some of their opponents, the Herodians, to pose a tricky question: Is it lawful to pay the census tax? Since the Pharisees didn't believe it was lawful and the Herodians did, no matter what Jesus answered, someone was bound to be angered.

Jesus' answer shows his acumen and wisdom. Instead of giving a direct reply, he first calls out the Pharisees for trying to trap him. He understands their motive is to find a reason to kill him, and he lets them know that he recognizes that. Then he very carefully gives the reply we are familiar with, saying that some things belong to God and some things belong to Caesar. It is our responsibility to see the difference and respond accordingly.

This can be quite a challenge for us who live today in an increasingly secularized world. Many want to see how far they can push the limits and have us render unto Caesar that which belongs rightly to God. We must be ready for the test and continue to render unto God that which is God's while still being actively engaged in the secular domain with the good news of the Gospel. Not an easy task by any means, and one that can be accomplished only with the grace of God himself.

School is closed tomorrow, Monday, October 23rd, to provide a full day of Professional Development for the teachers.

On Wednesday, the students in Grades 6-8 will participate in a program entitled Don't Press Send. Katie Duffy Schumacher is a New York State certified teacher who founded Don't Press Send in her hometown of Rockville Centre, NY. "Mama Schu," as she is often referred to, saw the pressing need and acted on behalf of today's children to create a kinder and safer online community. Katie is dedicated to helping today's children, adolescents, and adults embrace the benefits of technology while avoiding its pitfalls.

On Friday, the Fathers' Club will host a Sports Night for Grades K-4.

Peace and blessings to you and your families this 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Focus on Religious Freedom

"The happy union of these states is a wonder; their Constitution is a miracle; their example the hope of liberty throughout the world. Woe to the ambition that would meditate the destruction of either!"
 - James Madison

The Constitution of the United States The "Miracle in Philadelphia" Was Grounded in America's Judeo-Christian Values

Judeo-Christian values are foundational to America, beginning with the Declaration of Independence "endowed by their Creator" to the principles found in the U.S. Constitution honoring God-given Life and Liberty." "Our Founding Fathers separated church from state, but they wisely did not separate God from state. They acknowledged God as the source of our rights and were careful to place Biblical morality directly into our founding documents and laws, and into our values and culture, precisely to help prevent a future totalitarian or tyrannical rule in America," wrote author Dr. Ronald R. Cherry.⁽¹⁾

It is alarming that many today have turned a blind eye to the required connection between God and Liberty and forgotten the warning from John Adams and Thomas Jefferson that Liberty cannot survive among men without its Divine connection.

"Remember that a Constitution which gives to the people so much freedom and entrusts them with so much power, rests for its permanency, on their knowledge and virtue," wrote Arthur Stansbury, in 1828. "An ignorant people are easily betrayed, and a wicked people can never be ruled by the mild influence of their own laws. If you would be free ... cultivate knowledge - flee from vice. The virtuous citizen is the true noble."

Pope Francis and the Bishops of the United States have called for prayers for peace in the Holy Land after the strike by Hamas on Israel. Let each of us in our private and community prayer ask for God's blessings and comfort on those suffering barbaric violence and tragic loss. Our prayers for peace must be constant and earnest that the fighting and death will end.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

LA CATEDRAL DE SANTA INÉS

MISAS EN ESPAÑOL, Sábado - a las 7.30pm
(Misa del Domingo)

Martes - a las 7.30pm (comenzando con el Rosario y confesión a las 7.00pm)

Hoy la Iglesia celebra el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones (DOMUND), con el lema «Corazones fervientes, pies en camino», y nos recuerda la misión de evangelizar que todos los bautizados recibimos de Jesús.

La liturgia de este día nos da la ocasión para que meditemos sobre la siempre difícil conjugación de lo temporal y lo espiritual, del César y de Dios.

Las lecturas de este domingo ponen ante nuestra mirada que Dios es el único Señor de la historia. Así lo expresa Isaías haciendo una lectura religiosa de los acontecimientos que vivía Israel. En el evangelio, Jesús insiste en el señorío de Dios y, por lo tanto, en que ningún poder en la tierra es digno del culto que a él sólo hay que ofrecer. Los cristianos de Tesalónica, nos hace saber Pablo, son ejemplo de amor y esperanza en el Señor Jesucristo.

Las tres parábolas que leíamos en los últimos domingos tenían en su punto de mira a los dirigentes judíos. Hoy leemos el primero de los episodios de la trama que preparan para quitar de en medio a Jesús.
