Principal's Announcements

4th Sunday of Advent

Luke carefully recorded the Annunciation scene in his Gospel to illustrate the ultimate fulfillment of the greatest promises of the Old Testament. In saying that Gabriel goes to “a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph of the house of David,” Luke is alluding to the unforgettable prophecy that Isaiah gave to the house of David: “A young virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel” (Isaiah 7:14). Immanuel means “God with us,” and thus this child of Mary is nothing less than the presence of God himself as foretold by Isaiah.

Gabriel also tells Mary that her child will inherit “the throne of David his father . . . and of his kingdom there will be no end.” The angel’s declaration is an explicit claim that the great promise made in God’s covenant with David has now been fulfilled. In the First Reading, the Lord promised David: “I will raise up your heir after you. . . . Your house and your kingdom shall endure forever.” This is the promise of promises for the Jews. It meant that they would one day have a king whose kingdom would last forever. After promising David that one of his descendants would rule over an everlasting kingdom, God tells David, “I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me.” In the fulfillment of that promise, the angel tells Mary that her son will be called the “Son of the Most High.”

School is closed this week as we celebrate the Feast of the Nativity.

*He was born in an obscure village,
the child of a peasant woman.
He grew up in still another village, where he worked in a carpenter shop until he was thirty.*

*Then for three years he was an itinerant preacher.
He never wrote a book. He never held an office.
He never had a family or owned a house. He didn’t go to college. He never visited a big city. He never traveled two hundred miles from the place where he was born.
He did none of the things one usually associates with greatness.*

*He had no credentials but himself.
He was only thirty-three when the tide
of public opinion turned against him.*

His friends ran away.

He was turned over to his enemies and went through the mockery of a trial.

He was nailed to a cross between two thieves.

*While he was dying, his executioners gambled for his clothing,
the only property he had on Earth.*

When he was dead, he was laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend.

Twenty centuries have come and gone, and today he is the central figure of the human race, and the leader of mankind’s progress.

All the armies that ever marched, all the navies that ever sailed, all the parliament that ever sat, all the kings that ever reigned, put together have not affected the life of man on Earth

*As much as that One Solitary Life.

(By Dr. James Allen Francis)

God, our Father, we thank You for Your love for us, a love that reaches out to accept us, no matter our circumstance. As we contemplate the arrival of Your Son, help us to share our love with others. May our love, like Yours, be abundant and healing. Amen.

Focus on Religious Freedom

Part 2: The Twelve Rules of Christmas®

Compiled by attorneys for The Rutherford Institute www.rutherford.org and <http://bit.ly/1TNKSQb>

Each year there are complaints, threats, and lawsuits over the public mention of Christmas, displays of manger scenes and even of Christmas trees, traditional sacred music included in school, students wearing Christmas messages and jewelry. Please share these facts:

6. Public schools may not require students to sing Christmas songs whose messages conflict with the students' own religious or nonreligious beliefs.
7. Public school students may not be prohibited from distributing literature to fellow students concerning the Christmas holiday or invitations to church Christmas events on the same terms that they would be allowed to distribute other literature that is not related to schoolwork.
8. Private citizens or groups may display crèchees or other Christmas symbols in public parks subject to the same reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions that would apply to other similar displays.
9. Government entities may erect and maintain celebrations of the Christmas holiday, such as Christmas trees and Christmas light displays, and may include crèchees in their displays at least so long as the purpose for including the crèche is not to promote its religious content and it is placed in context with other symbols of the Holiday season as part of an effort to celebrate the public Christmas holiday through its traditional symbols.
10. Neither public nor private employers may prevent employees from decorating their offices for Christmas, playing Christmas music, or wearing clothing related to Christmas merely because of their religious content so long as these activities are not used to harass or intimidate others.
11. Public or private employees whose sincerely held religious beliefs require that they not work on Christmas must be reasonably accommodated by their employers unless granting the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the employer.
12. Government recognition of Christmas as a public holiday and granting government employees a paid holiday for Christmas does not violate the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment.

Permission has been granted to Catholics for Freedom of Religion (www.CFFOR.org) to distribute these guidelines. Permission has been granted to Catholics for Freedom of Religion (www.CFFOR.org) to distribute these guidelines. Questions about the guidelines should be directed to the Rutherford Institute. (staff@rutherford.org)

From the Board of Directors and founding members of Catholics for Freedom of Religion to Americans of all faiths, we send our wishes that your Christmas will be filled with joy, gladness and hope at the birth of our Savior, Christ the King. We pray together with you for strength and guidance for all Americans to understand and guard the religious freedom that protects our rights to choose our faith, to worship openly and fearlessly, to share our faith freely and to make the choice for life. Venite adoremus Dominum.

MARCH FOR LIFE

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

LA CATEDRAL DE SANTA INÉS

MISAS EN ESPAÑOL, Sábado - a las 7.30pm
(Misa del Domingo)

Martes - a las 7.30pm (comenzando con el Rosario y confesión a las 7.00pm)

La celebración de la Santa Misa en este cuarto domingo de Adviento, en el que la liturgia adquiere un color mariano, pues estamos a pocos días para la Navidad.

Esto no interrumpe ciertamente el ritmo del Adviento ni la dinámica de la preparación a la Navidad, pues María fue la que mejor vivió el Adviento y la Navidad. Con esos sentimientos, preparémonos también nosotros, como María, para recibir a Jesús en esta Santa Eucaristía.

Tanto la primera lectura como el salmo responsorial recuerdan la alianza que el Señor hizo con el rey David al asegurarle que su dinastía se mantendría para siempre en el trono de Judá.

Esa promesa se cumplirá en Jesús, el Mesías esperado cuyo Reino no tendrá fin, el Hijo del Altísimo concebido en el vientre de una humilde muchacha de Nazaret. Éste es el misterio que, según la carta a los Romanos, Dios había mantenido en secreto desde la eternidad y ahora es anunciado como Buena Noticia a todas las naciones.

Escucharemos ahora el relato del anuncio más importante en la historia de la salvación, dirigido a una joven Virgen de la estirpe de David, en cumplimiento de la promesa escuchada en la primera lectura.
