Principal's Announcements

On Palm Sunday, we stand for one of the longest Gospel readings of the entire liturgical year. Here we read through two whole chapters of the Gospel of Mark that take us from early in Holy Week all the way to Jesus's burial. There is really too much to take in here as we contemplate the mystery and meaning of Redemption. The liturgical practice of hearing this reading read aloud by multiple lectors and participating by giving voice to some of the lines ourselves leads us into the mystery of Christ's Passion. It is meant to be a powerful and transformative experience that helps us to walk with Jesus in his suffering.

Like the Stations of the Cross, in this Gospel we are meant to sit at the Last Supper with the Apostles, weep with Christ in Gethsemane, watch him being tortured, and to stand at the foot of the Cross with Mary. Here our job is not merely to study or think, but to contemplate and stand in awe before the powerful love of our Savior. This long Gospel reading, through which we must stand, also introduces us into the spiritual discipline of Holy Week. Keeping our hearts and minds focused on the long and painful story in the midst of physical discomfort can help us share, even if just in a small way, in the suffering of Jesus.

On Monday, March 25th Hot Pretzels will be distributed to the students at lunchtime for those in Grades 1, 4, 5, and 6 who pre-ordered them.

On Tuesday, March 26th Hot Pretzels will be distributed to the students at lunchtime for those in Grades 2, 3, 7, 8, and Kindergarten who pre-ordered them.

Screenings for incoming Kindergarten students will take place this week.

School will dismiss at 12 Noon on Wednesday, March 27th. Aftercare will not be in effect.

School will be closed for Easter vacation Thursday, March 28- April 7th. Classes will resume on Monday, April 8th.

Happy Palm Sunday,
Mrs. Cecilia St. John
Principal

Dear St. Agnes Parishioners:

During the month of May, we will again honor our Blessed Mother by saying the Rosary every night at 7:30. The Rosary will be on Free Conference Calling, a call in system utilized by Bishop Koenig during the early part of the pandemic. By simply dialing a phone number you can be part of a very powerful tool used by many Catholics.

We will need several volunteers to serve as leader and responder for every night and hope that some group(s) will take one night the entire month of May. Individuals can volunteer to take a leader or responder role for another day during the month or fill in on other days as needed. Please help us honor Mary during the month of May.

In April, we will be sending out the Fatima Rosary instructions to all our volunteers along with the simple instructions to access the free conference calling system.

Thank you in advance for your participation and help with the Rosary.

In order for us to complete the schedule, please respond as soon as you can to Steve @ 516-297-6597 or Bill @ 516-965-5378.

Religious Education

Palm Sunday is the start of Holy Week, the week before Easter. During Holy Week, we remember the life and death of Christ. On Palm Sunday, the crowds welcomed Jesus by waving palms and shouting Hosanna.

On Holy Thursday, the final day of Lent and the first day of the Paschal Triduum, we remember the Last Supper with Jesus and His Apostles. The Friday before Easter is Good Friday. It is the day Jesus was crucified. During Holy Week, we celebrate Jesus' love for us, as He died on the cross and resurrected for us to have eternal life.

Please visit the Parish website for all Masses on Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and Easter Sunday.

There are no in-person classes this week.

All online students should review the calendars found on the parish website to ensure all are up to date.

Sincerely in Christ,

Mrs. Anne Nelson

Focus on Religious Freedom

www.cffor.org

Good Friday is Near. Are We Ready to Follow Jesus and Take Up His Cross?

Ten years ago Prof. Robert George of Princeton University, McCormick Professor of Jurisprudence and Director of the James Madison Program in American Ideals and Institutions, spoke about changes in our culture's attitude and treatment regarding those who faithfully follow the teachings of the Bible. He pointed out that a Catholic who actually lives the teachings of his faith is in for a very rough time.

That time has been with us for ten full years now and grows even more difficult. In 2024 the anti-religion, Bible-bashing forces in our society, abetted by government regulations, spurious court challenges and media-driven extremism are imposing an even more Herculean challenge to Americans who believe and faithfully aspire to live the words of the Bible and the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

From almost every direction come pressures to enable the destruction of pre-born life, to validate an array of gender identities, to bless marriages outside of the union of one man and one woman, to submit our children to principles and behaviors unacceptable to our consciences and accept denial of our rights to speak and act as full participants within the public square of ideas and policies.

When Prof. George urged us ten years ago that as Catholics we must live the truth of the Gospel as proclaimed by the Church, he acknowledged there would be a price to pay. From being cancelled to being ostracized and marginalized we see that cost every day.

Prof. George said, "You see, for us, as for our faithful Evangelical friends, it is now Good Friday. The memory of Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem has faded." "The love affair with Jesus, his gospel and his church is over. Elite sectors of the cultures of Europe and North America no longer welcome his message." "Away with him," they shout. "Give us Barrabas!"

More than ever, the Catholic laity must speak and act publicly in defense of religious freedom. By being dynamic in following our faith, our actions will exemplify our words. Cardinal Dolan has reminded us that a charism of the laity is to protect religious freedom in the public square. Archbishop Chaput advised, "If lay people don't love their Catholic faith enough to struggle for it in the public square, nothing the bishops do will finally matter."

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

LA CATEDRAL DE SANTA INÉS

MISAS EN ESPAÑOL, Sábado - a las 7.30pm
(Misa del Domingo)

Martes - a las 7.30pm (comenzando con el Rosario y confesión a las 7.00pm)

Hoy damos inicio a la «Semana Santa» o «Semana Grande», que es mitad Cuaresma (hasta la Eucaristía del Jueves) y mitad Triduo Pascual (desde esa Eucaristía hasta la Vigilia Pascual y luego todo el domingo).

El Domingo de Ramos en la Pasión del Señor es un nombre compuesto que tiene dos dimensiones muy distintas: las alabanzas que la multitud dedicó a Jesús en su entrada a Jerusalén, con palmas y «hosannas», y luego la Eucaristía, más austera, con las tres lecturas apuntando al drama de la cruz, sobre todo el evangelio de la Pasión.

Esta procesión en honor a Cristo el domingo de Ramos tuvo su origen en Jerusalén, ya en el siglo IV, y luego se difundió a toda la Iglesia. Acompañemos con devoción a Jesús en su pasión, para vivir con Él la gran fiesta de la Pascua.

Escucharemos hoy la lectura de la Pasión según san Marcos, cuyo tema central es el de Jesús como Hijo de Dios, el Siervo de Dios mártir, vaticinado por Isaías en la primera lectura, que muere en la cruz

PRAYER FOR OUR TROOPS

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
 Protect them as they protect us.
 Bless them and their families
 for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need.
 And give us peace.

I ask this in the name of Jesus,
 Our Lord and Savior. Amen

Kindly call the Rectory Office at 766-0205 if you know of anyone that is on this list and has returned home.

Pray for Vocations

As we all know, the Catholic Church needs more priests, as well as religious brothers and sisters. We encourage you to pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life, especially from within our parish and our school.
