PRAYER FOR OUR TROOPS

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
 Protect them as they protect us.
 Bless them and their families
 for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need.
 And give us peace.
 I ask this in the name of Jesus,
 Our Lord and Savior. Amen

Kindly call the Rectory Office at 766-0205 if you know of anyone that is on this list and has returned home.

Devotions

Eucharistic Adoration is the traditional Catholic practice of taking the consecrated host, the Blessed Sacrament, and placing it in a sun-shaped vessel called a Monstrance in order for the faithful to look upon Our Lord and pray to Him in peaceful contemplation. You are invited to join us every Wednesday (unless otherwise noted) in the Cathedral from 2:00–5:00 p.m. for Adoration and some quiet reflection and prayer.

The Rosary is prayed after the 9:00 a.m. Mass each Monday through Friday in the Cathedral except on Saturdays when it is prayed after the 7:45 a.m. Mass.

STEWARDSHIP

A Way of LifeStewardship Reflection

Lent is a time to grow closer to the Lord. Service to others is just one of the ways we can do that by being the Hands of Christ on Earth.

Living Stewardship . . . Pillar of Service

As we continue our Lenten journey, think of ways you can be at service to others.

Principal's Announcements

Fourth Sunday of Lent

This Sunday's Gospel reading from Luke is a familiar story for many Christians—the story of the prodigal son. However, when we look more closely at the historical setting for this story, we see that for Jesus' original audience in the first century it would have been a shocking story.

The younger son is desperately restless. He goes about seeking fulfillment for his life in all the wrong places. In asking his father for his share of the inheritance right away, he is essentially telling his father, "I wish you were dead" because the inheritance usually wouldn't come until after his father's death. He then sells his share of the inheritance and squanders it on prostitutes. The son is looking for happiness in wealth and pleasure rather than in his relationship with his father.

But this son isn't the only character to act in a surprising way. When the father sees him returning, he runs to meet him. Fathers were expected to act with dignity, so running to meet anyone—let alone a son who has shamed the family—would have been shocking. Indeed, the action is completely incomprehensible to the older son. He has remained obedient to his father, but he views his father more as a master and himself as a servant. In this story the father goes out to meet both his sons and invite them into the feast—and into a better understanding of his love.

The students are continuing their Lenten fasts and feasts. This week, students in grades 4 and 5 will attach their Lenten flowers to the Cross in the main hallway to symbolize the sacrifices and good deeds they are performing.

The 3rd Grade Reading Program is underway. This year, the 3rd graders are reading a mystery and learning how to use clues to solve it. A big thank you to Mrs. Barricelli and the PSA for organizing this special reading event. The Kindergarten students will raise their voices in song for the Parish Senior Club as part of their Lenten good deed.

On Thursday, April 3rd, the 7th graders will participate in a Lenten retreat. On Friday, April 4th, students in grades 4-7 will attend confession to help them prepare for Easter. Friday night is our Green and Gold Sports Night, an annual highlight for 7th and 8th grade students. The students have been practicing for months in anticipation of this exciting event!

Peace and blessings to you and your families on this 4th Sunday of Lent.

Mrs. Cecilia St. John,
Principal

Society of St. Vincent de Paul St. Agnes Cathedral Conference We Help People!

This week in the Church calendar we have reached the half way point in Lent. Our Catholic faith encourages us to focus on prayer, fasting and almsgiving as part of our Lenten journey

We are all feeling the impact of inflation on groceries, clothing and housing, and it is especially difficult for those with limited resources. The Saint Vincent de Paul Society of St. Agnes has been overwhelmed with requests for groceries cards, rent assistance, and furniture. We have also been encouraged by people so willing to help.

If you would like to help us as part of your Lenten offering, please contact the Rectory at 516-766-0205. Remember the poor boxes and food bins in the Cathedral are a wonderful way to teach even our youngest children how they can help families right here in Rockville Centre who are struggling.

Thank you, once again, for your kindness and generosity. We ask you to please keep all of our neighbors in your prayers.

LA CATEDRAL DE SANTA INÉS

MISAS EN ESPAÑOL, Sábado - a las 7.30pm
(Misa del Domingo)

Martes - a las 7.30pm (comenzando con el Rosario
y confesión a las 7.00pm)

El Hijo Pródigo es la parábola que mejor refleja el anuncio de la Buena Noticia de Dios a los pobres y pecadores. En este IV domingo de Cuaresma es un gran mensaje para todos nosotros que venimos a la casa del Padre, para pedir su perdón y celebrar un gran banquete.

Las lecturas de este día tienen un marcado carácter festivo. Los israelitas celebran la fiesta de la Pascua por primera vez en la tierra prometida. De este modo se unen al canto del salmista que bendice al Señor por su grandeza y su bondad. El padre del evangelio de Lucas prepara una gran fiesta para conmemorar que su hijo perdido ha vuelto a la vida.

La misericordia de Dios es infinita. Jesús nos la explica hoy en el Evangelio de San Lucas, por medio de una parábola, que es una obra maestra, contada con exquisitos toques de psicología.

Religious Freedom Benefits All

Parents' Rights to Teach Their Children About Gender

But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female.

Mark 10:6

The Catholic church teaches that parents have the basic right and responsibility to direct their children's educations. Across the country too many schools have usurped a role of teaching children theories about sex that have no basis in science and directly contradict many families' religious beliefs.

Most Rev. Michael F. Burbidge, Bishop of Arlington explains: "In the past decade our culture has seen growing acceptance of transgender ideology—that is, the claim that a person's biological sex and personal identity have no necessary connection and could in fact contradict each other." Pope Francis. (2016). *Amoris Laetitia "According to this view, "human identity" is self-defined and "becomes the choice of the individual." This, according to Bishop Burbidge and other authoritative teachers of Catholic dogma, is an extreme challenge to all church members since this is a view contrary to the truth. Pope Francis has warned: "Today children-children! are taught in school that everyone can choose his or her sex. Why are they teaching this? Let us not play with truths. It's true that behind all this we find gender ideology. In books, kids learn that it's possible to change one's sex. Could gender, to be a woman or to be a man, be an option and not a fact of nature? This leads to this error. Let us call things by their names." Pope Francis. (2016, July 27)

In Montgomery County, Maryland parents have been refused the ability to opt out their children from gender ideology lessons which the Muslim, Orthodox and Catholic parents argue conflict with their religious beliefs and their right to teach those beliefs to their children. The Becket Fund for Religious Liberty will present the parents' case to the Supreme Court this spring. Other similar cases are working their way through the courts with parents seeking to protect the 1st Amendment religious freedom of their families to follow their faith.

The Boy from Milan | Trailer

You may have heard of him, the sneaker-wearing, computer-loving "gamer saint" of our time. But beyond the headlines and hashtags, the real story of Carlo is something deeper, something the world desperately needs to hear. Known for his deep love of God, devotion to the Eucharist, and quiet acts of charity, Carlo's life was a testament to everyday holiness.
