PRAYER FOR OUR TROOPS

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
 Protect them as they protect us.
 Bless them and their families
 for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need.
 And give us peace.
 I ask this in the name of Jesus,
 Our Lord and Savior. Amen

Kindly call the Rectory Office at 766-0205 if you know of anyone that is on this list and has returned home.

Devotions

Eucharistic Adoration is the traditional Catholic practice of taking the consecrated host, the Blessed Sacrament, and placing it in a sun-shaped vessel called a Monstrance in order for the faithful to look upon Our Lord and pray to Him in peaceful contemplation. You are invited to join us every Wednesday (unless otherwise noted) in the Cathedral from 2:00–5:00 p.m. for Adoration and some quiet reflection and prayer.

The Rosary is prayed after the 9:00 a.m. Mass each Monday through Friday in the Cathedral except on Saturdays when it is prayed after the 7:45 a.m. Mass.

STEWARDSHIP

A Way of LifeStewardship Reflection

“Christ became obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.” Jesus died for us. Remember also, however, He would have went through the pain and suffering of Good Friday even for just YOU alone.

Living Stewardship . . . Pillar of Service

As we enter into Holy Week, think of some ways you can be of service to another. Perhaps offer to drive an elderly friend or family member to church during the Triduum.

Principal's Announcements

Hosanna to the King!

The readings for Palm or Passion Sunday are the most dramatic of the whole year. They recount the entire story of Christ's death from Holy Thursday through Good Friday. One of the unusual aspects of this week's Gospel reading is that it is the one time during the year when all of us take part in proclaiming the Word of God by participating in the Gospel reading.

In Christ's Passion, there were saints and sinners, enemies and friends. And we can find ourselves in any one of these categories. This Gospel reading challenges us to consider areas of our lives in which we deny Christ. We might not see ourselves denying Jesus three times in front of a crowd as Peter did, but do we deny him in small ways through the little sins we commit each day? And while there was only one Judas who sold our Lord for thirty pieces of silver, we might find ourselves in Judas' company when we reject Christ completely and turn our backs on him in mortal sin.

On the other hand, the Gospel reading also holds up beautiful models of love and fidelity: Mary Magdalene, John, our Blessed Mother, and the women who go to the tomb where Jesus is buried show us the most noble characteristics of a follower of Christ. Which characters from the Passion narrative do you identify with the most?

This is a short week for the students and faculty. School is in session Monday- Wednesday. Wednesday is a 12 noon dismissal. Aftercare will not be in effect on Wednesday.

Students in grades 4 and 6 who were absent last week for the NYS ELA Exam will take the exam this week. Our 1st graders and 5th graders will enjoy field trips this week.

Tuesday, April 15th is the Chrism Mass. I am looking forward to attending this special Mass with the school community. Please sign up via the Google Form that was on my Sunday email the week of March 30th. Students should attend in uniform as we will be joining other schools at this special celebration. I look forward to celebrating this important moment in our faith together. Both parents do not have to attend, and if no parent can attend, but your child would like to, please indicate that on the form. Your child/ren can sit with me.

Wednesday, April 16th is the last day of school this week as we begin our break for the Feast of the Resurrection of the Lord.

Happy Palm Sunday to you and your families!

Society of St. Vincent de Paul St. Agnes Cathedral Conference We Help People!

This week in the Church calendar we have reached the half way point in Lent. Our Catholic faith encourages us to focus on prayer, fasting and almsgiving as part of our Lenten journey

We are all feeling the impact of inflation on groceries, clothing and housing, and it is especially difficult for those with limited resources. The Saint Vincent de Paul Society of St. Agnes has been overwhelmed with requests for groceries cards, rent assistance, and furniture. We have also been encouraged by people so willing to help.

If you would like to help us as part of your Lenten offering, please contact the Rectory at 516-766-0205. Remember the poor boxes and food bins in the Cathedral are a wonderful way to teach even our youngest children how they can help families right here in Rockville Centre who are struggling.

Thank you, once again, for your kindness and generosity. We ask you to please keep all of our neighbors in your prayers.

Religious Education

Dear Families and Students,

As we celebrate Palm Sunday, we are reminded of the significance of this day in the Christian faith. It marks the beginning of Holy Week, when we remember Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem. With the waving of palm branches, the people welcomed Him as their King, but He came not with power and force, but with peace and humility.

Let us take this opportunity during Holy Week to reflect on the values of kindness, humility, and love that Jesus showed to all. Please see the bulletin or visit the website for the Holy Week Mass schedule.

If you attend mass elsewhere, please email massattendance@stagnescathedral.org

Wishing you all a blessed Holy Week!

Blessings,
Anne Nelson

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

LA CATEDRAL DE SANTA INÉS

MISAS EN ESPAÑOL, Sábado - a las 7.30pm
(Misa del Domingo)

Martes - a las 7.30pm (comenzando con el Rosario
y confesión a las 7.00pm)

Con la entrada de Jesús en la ciudad santa de Jerusalén, su ministerio público llega a la plenitud, y nos situamos a las puertas del misterio pascual, centro de nuestra fe: su pasión, muerte y resurrección. Que la Palabra que va a ser proclamada nos disponga a celebrar santamente todos estos acontecimientos.

Las lecturas de este domingo abren la Semana. El Siervo de Yahvé, del que habla Isaías, sufre, pero muestra una confianza inmensa en medio de su dolor. El salmista, en un momento de dificultad presente, recuerda la acción salvadora de Dios en el pasado para animar su confianza y esperar la salvación. Esa misma experiencia la resume Pablo en el himno de la carta a los Filipenses: Cristo, que se humilla continuamente desde su condición de Dios hasta una muerte ignominiosa en cruz, es exaltado por Dios como Señor. Este mismo Jesús, Mesías humilde y pacífico, toma posesión de Jerusalén para manifestar su verdadera identidad.

Con el corazón atento a la Buena Nueva de la salvación, dispongámonos a escuchar la proclamación de la Pasión de Cristo, según San Lucas. Acompañemos de corazón estos momentos de Cristo, como verdaderos discípulos suyos.

Ten Commandments Once Again Displayed at Kentucky's State Capitol

Kentucky will join other states in adding a public monument of the Ten Commandments on its Capitol grounds. Such monuments are often a gift from an organization within the state. The Fraternal Order of Eagles donated Kentucky's Ten Commandments monument in 1971 but it was removed in 2002 due to legal concerns.

Individuals and organizations such as the Freedom from Religion Foundation, often sue states and cities to force removal of such monuments which they believe conflict with the 1st amendment's establishment clause. They assert that displaying the Ten Commandments is an establishment of the Christian faith and should not be allowed on public property.

However, the Supreme Court has upheld displays of the Ten Commandments on state and federal properties. The court's opinion in Van Orden v. Perry held that the Constitution does allow the display of the Ten Commandments on the state of Texas' Capitol grounds and cites the findings of a district court: "The District Court also determined that a reasonable observer, mindful of the history, purpose, and context, would not conclude that this passive monument conveyed the message that the State was seeking to endorse religion." This set the precedent for other states like Kentucky.

Regarding the Texas monument, the majority of the justices wrote that: "Such acknowledgments of the role played by the Ten Commandments in our Nation's heritage are common throughout America. We need only look within our own Courtroom. Since 1935, Moses has stood, holding two tablets that reveal portions of the Ten Commandments written in Hebrew, among other lawgivers in the south frieze. Representations of the Ten Commandments adorn the metal gates lining the north and south sides of the Courtroom as well as the doors leading into the Courtroom. Moses also sits on the exterior east facade of the building holding the Ten Commandments tablets. Similar acknowledgments can be seen throughout a visitor's tour of our Nation's Capital."
