Devotions

Eucharistic Adoration is the traditional Catholic practice of taking the consecrated host, the Blessed Sacrament, and placing it in a sun-shaped vessel called a Monstrance in order for the faithful to look upon Our Lord and pray to Him in peaceful contemplation. You are invited to join us every Wednesday (unless otherwise noted) in the Cathedral from 2:00–5:00 p.m. for Adoration and some quiet reflection and prayer.

The Rosary is prayed after the 9:00 a.m. Mass each Monday through Friday in the Cathedral except on Saturdays when it is prayed after the 7:45 a.m. Mass.

Easter 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Happy Easter to you and your families in this Jubilee Year of Hope!

Our celebration of Easter rekindles our hope each year.

The Tomb is empty! Jesus is Risen!

A wealthy man and a member of the Sanhedrin, St. Joseph of Arimathea is one of those Gospel characters with a very brief but very important role.

In John 19:38-42, we see that after Jesus' Crucifixion, Joseph of Arimathea asks Pilate for permission to take away Our Lord's Body. This was a bold and courageous act of faith from a man "seeking the Kingdom of God." (Mark 15:43)

Joseph and Nicodemus together place our Lord's Body reverently in linen cloths prepared with myrrh, aloes and spices: "Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden a new tomb where no one had ever been laid. So because of the Jewish day of Preparation, as the tomb was close at hand, they laid Jesus there."

In his commentary on the Gospel of Matthew, Fr. Simeon Leiva-Merikakis gives tribute to Joseph of Arimathea. He writes: "And how can we fail to do homage to Joseph of Arimathea? In performing a very humane corporal work of mercy by seeking out and burying the corpse of his beloved Teacher, Joseph becomes for all time a living icon of the eternal Father himself, stooping with compassion to enfold within his throbbing breast the mangled body of his beloved, Son, whom he himself handed over to sinners out of love for mankind. At long last, the Son of God on earth has fallen into the hands, not of a sinner, but of a just and compassionate man! Joseph of Arimathea enacts the justice and love of God himself."¹

As we celebrate Easter Sunday, the Easter Octave, Divine Mercy Sunday and the Easter Season, let us remember and ask the intercession of the great Joseph of Arimathea who prepared the Tomb of Christ and the Body of Christ with such sensitive care and compassion, such faith, courage and reverence. The Tomb is Empty! He is Risen!

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre

Pascua 2025

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

¡Feliz Pascua para ustedes y sus familias en este Año Jubilar de la Esperanza! Nuestra celebración de la Pascua reaviva cada año nuestra esperanza.

¡La Tumba está vacía! ¡Jesús ha resucitado!

Un hombre adinerado y miembro del Sanedrín, San José de Arimatea es uno de esos personajes del Evangelio con un papel muy breve pero muy importante.

En Juan 19:38-42, vemos que después de la Crucifixión de Jesús, José de Arimatea pide permiso a Pilato para llevarse el Cuerpo de Nuestro Señor. Este fue un acto audaz y valiente de fe de parte de un hombre que “esperaba el Reino de Dios.” (Marcos 15:43)

José y Nicodemo juntos colocan el Cuerpo de nuestro Señor con reverencia en lienzos de lino preparados con mirra, áloe y especias: “En el lugar donde fue crucificado había un huerto, y en el huerto un sepulcro nuevo en el que aún no habían puesto a nadie. Como era el día de la Preparación de los judíos, y el sepulcro estaba cerca, pusieron allí a Jesús.”

En su comentario al Evangelio de Mateo, el P. Simeon Leiva-Merikakis rinde homenaje a José de Arimatea. Escribe: “¿Y cómo no rendir homenaje a José de Arimatea? Al realizar una obra de misericordia corporal muy humana, al buscar y enterrar el cadáver de su amado Maestro, José se convierte para siempre en un icono viviente del Padre eterno, inclinándose con compasión para acoger en su pecho palpitante el cuerpo destrozado de su amado Hijo, a quien él mismo entregó a los pecadores por amor a la humanidad. ¡Por fin, el Hijo de Dios en la tierra ha caído en manos, no de un pecador, sino de un hombre justo y compasivo! José de Arimatea representa la justicia y el amor del mismo Dios.”¹

Al celebrar el Domingo de Pascua, la Octava de Pascua, el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia y el Tiempo Pascual, recordemos y pidamos la intercesión del gran José de Arimatea, quien preparó la Tumba de Cristo y el Cuerpo de Cristo con tan delicado cuidado y compasión, con tanta fe, valentía y reverencia. ¡La Tumba está vacía! ¡Él ha resucitado!

Sinceramente en Cristo,

Reverendísimo John O. Barres
Obispo de Rockville Centre

Friends of Steven McDonald Our Lady Of Fatima First Saturday Devotion

Steven made many friends – men, women, young adults, and children – as he shared his story and message of forgiveness. To live for the birth of his son, he knew he must forgive the young man who shot him leaving him paralyzed and unable to speak. As he lived each day with the consequences of this young man's actions, Steven forgave him daily. Why forgive? Asking God to bless his enemy freed him of bitterness so he could receive God's graces to live on a respirator for 30 ½ years far beyond the expectations of doctors.

DO YOU HAVE SOMEONE YOU NEED TO FORGIVE? Practice Forgiveness daily. Everyone is welcome to become a friend of Steven by joining us on the First Saturday of the Month praying for healing in families as Steven did for 17 years. Asking God to bless our enemies frees us from bitterness and resentment to receive God's healing graces. We meet at Steven's parish - SAINT AGNES CATHEDRAL at 7:00am to pray and meditate on the mysteries of the rosary before mass at 7:45 on January 4, February 1, March 1, April 5, May 3, June 7, July 5, August 2, September 6, October 4, November 1, December 6.

Happy Easter!

Principal's Announcements

We are an Easter People and Alleluia is our song! ~ Pope St. John Paul II

Easter is a time for us to celebrate the resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ, who brought light into the world, overcame darkness, and offered us the gift of eternal life. As a community of faith, we are reminded that through His sacrifice, we are never alone, and no matter the challenges we face, we are called to rise with Christ in hope and love.

As we enjoy the Easter break, let us be mindful of the blessings we have and take time to celebrate the beauty of new beginnings. May this Easter bring peace to your hearts, joy to your homes, and a renewed sense of hope in the promises of our faith.

Wishing you all a blessed and joyful Easter!

MISAS EN ESPAÑOL, Sábado - a las 7.30pm
(Misa del Domingo)

Martes - a las 7.30pm (comenzando con el Rosario
y confesión a las 7.00pm)

Este es el Domingo de Pascua de la Resurrección del Señor, una celebración revestida de una alegría inmensa, provocada por nuestra esperanza en la vida eterna: si por medio del bautismo hemos muerto con Cristo al pecado, sabemos que también resucitaremos con Él.

Todas las lecturas de hoy se hacen eco de la buena noticia de Pascua: "Éste es el día en que actuó el Señor". El evangelio nos traslada a la entrada del sepulcro vacío para que, con el discípulo amado, veamos y creamos. En este mismo sentido, la carta a los Colosenses exhorta a vivir unidos a Cristo resucitado; él es fuente de nuestra vida y razón de nuestro testimonio, como refleja el discurso de Pedro en la primera lectura del libro de Hechos de los Apóstoles.

El Evangelio de san Juan nos presenta hoy a los primeros testigos de la Resurrección de Cristo, quienes encontraron el sepulcro vacío el primer día de la semana.

LOS SACRAMENTOS PENITENCIA/CONFESIÓN

Come venerate St. Carlo Acutis' relic & learn about the extraordinary life of teen Carlo Acutis who will be canonized as the 1st "Millennial Saint" on April 27th by Pope Francis!

Carlo Acutis was born in London in 1991 and grew up in Milan, Italy. He displayed an early attraction to the spiritual life, reciting the rosary and attending Mass daily, serving as a catechist, volunteering at a Church soup kitchen and tutoring children with their homework. At the same time, Acutis was known for his enthusiasm for typical teenage interests, such as video games, pets, soccer and music. His desire to foster awareness of the Blessed Sacrament, along with his formidable computer skills, led him to create a database of Eucharistic miracles throughout the world. Acutis completed his exhibit after two years, right before his death in 2006, at age 15.

Bring your friends & family to experience Carlo's Eucharistic Miracles exhibit & "virtually visit" all the places around the world where the miracles happened.

There will be books for children & adults available for purchase.

The St. Agnes Fathers' Club proudly recognizes

Michael D. Smyth

2025 Recipient of the William J. Cronin Award

The William J. Cronin Award, established in 2006, honors individuals who selflessly dedicate their time and efforts to the children and community of St. Agnes Cathedral School. This year, we proudly present the award to Michael D. Smyth.

A lifelong resident of Rockville Centre and a devoted parishioner, Michael and his family have been part of St. Agnes Cathedral Parish for 52 years. His connection to St. Agnes Cathedral School began in 1980 when he entered kindergarten. After graduating, he continued his Catholic education at Regis High School and later attended The College of William and Mary. With over 25 years of experience in education, Michael currently serves as a math coach in the Baldwin School District, helping teachers refine their instructional methods.

Catholic education has always been a priority for Michael and his wife of 22 years, Lorraine, who is a St. John's University alumna. Their twins, Emma and Michael, both graduated from St. Agnes in 2018. Emma is now a junior studying biomedical engineering at Wake Forest University, while Michael Gregory is pursuing finance at Boston College. Their success is a testament to the strong foundation they received at St. Agnes. Despite their children being off at college, Michael and Lorraine remain actively involved in the school, parish, CYO program, and the broader Rockville Centre community.

Michael's commitment to service began as an Eagle Scout and deepened during his time at Regis, whose mission is to transform young Catholic men through an academically exceptional Jesuit education in a caring community which inspires leadership, generosity and a lifelong passion for service as Men for Others. Following the tragic loss of his dear friend and high school/college classmate Gregory James Trost on September 11, 2001, Michael and his classmates founded the ForeTrost Golf Outing to support Catholic education at Regis. Over the years, they have raised more than $800,000, with their 25th annual event planned for September 2026. The loss of Greg from his life has underscored the importance of friendship and living life to its fullest.

Since 2009, Michael has been a dedicated member of the Fathers' Club, chairing numerous golf outings and the annual March Madness Pool. Michael has captained the SAFC RVC Winter Olympics team in a fundraising effort for the RVC St. Patrick's Day parade, proudly leading them to a 1st Place finish in 2025. Additionally, he served two terms on the St. Agnes School Board, including as President in 2013-14, and coordinated the Gala/Dinner Dance twice. Michael and Lorraine ran the 8th Grade graduation dance, and they have served on the committee for several Parish Celebrations, chairing the 2020 Celebration during the COVID pandemic. Michael was a long serving member of the Parish Pastoral Council before its dissolution. Over the last three years, Michael has helped organize and run the Parish Bazaar, bringing back the exciting three-day event and fundraiser to the St. Agnes community.

Michael has also played a vital role in St. Agnes CYO, since his twins' enrollment in 4th grade, coaching basketball and volleyball and organizing a highly successful 6th Grade Christmas Tournament in 2015. For the past eight years Michael's been a member of the CYO Board, serving as the Program Coordinator with Patrick O'Brien. Under their leadership, St. Agnes CYO remains one of Long Island's premier programs, emphasizing faith, sportsmanship, and community service. Athletes and coaches not only excel in their respective sports but also consistently earn sportsmanship awards while demonstrating their faith. The recitation and memorization of the Athlete's Prayer has become a tradition before each event at the St. Agnes gym. With Michael's guidance, teams have embraced service projects within the parish and local community, fostering empathy and understanding. His philosophy promotes teamwork and sportsmanship, instilling a deep appreciation and passion for sports while strengthening the athletes' Catholic faith. Michael's dedication to youth sports extends beyond CYO—he has spent years coaching in the RVC Soccer Club, Little League, and BBL/GBL leagues, and he played a leadership role in Cub and Boy Scout Pack/Troop 163.

Michael's dedication to youth extends beyond the parish. In honor of his late nephew, Michael joined with his family to establish the Ryan Patrick O'Shea (RPO) Foundation, with a mission to increase mental health awareness and educate the community to help prevent suicide. The foundation has introduced educational programs across more than 15 Long Island schools and emergency service departments, and its 3-on-3 Basketball Tournament has become a major summer event for players, coaches and volunteers.

Michael sincerely thanks you for your support of St. Agnes and the ideals of Catholic Education. His commitment to Catholic education and community service remains steadfast. Though his children have long since graduated, he continues to support St. Agnes and its mission. As a long time, and still very active member of the St. Agnes Fathers' Club, he is honored to receive the William J. Cronin Award.
