PRAYER FOR OUR TROOPS

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
 Protect them as they protect us.
 Bless them and their families
 for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need.
 And give us peace.
 I ask this in the name of Jesus,
 Our Lord and Savior. Amen

Kindly call the Rectory Office at 766-0205 if you know of anyone that is on this list and has returned home.

Devotions

Eucharistic Adoration is the traditional Catholic practice of taking the consecrated host, the Blessed Sacrament, and placing it in a sun-shaped vessel called a Monstrance in order for the faithful to look upon Our Lord and pray to Him in peaceful contemplation. You are invited to join us every Wednesday (unless otherwise noted) in the Cathedral from 2:00–5:00 p.m. for Adoration and some quiet reflection and prayer.

The Rosary is prayed after the 9:00 a.m. Mass each Monday through Friday in the Cathedral except on Saturdays when it is prayed after the 7:45 a.m. Mass.

STEWARDSHIP A Way of Life Stewardship Reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus heals ten lepers, yet only one came back to thank Him.

Living Stewardship . . . Pillar of Prayer

When was the last time you thanked God for something? Often times we pray for guidance, miracles, and help but we forget to come back and thank God. This week, take time each day to thank Him for all He has done for you.

Principal's Announcements

Twenty-eighth Sunday of Ordinary Time

An Attitude of Gratitude

We've all heard the saying "Have an attitude of gratitude." For Christians, this is more than a greeting card saying; it is a basic command of Christian life. The theme of gratitude underlies this week's Gospel reading that tells of ten lepers who were healed by Jesus. In the reading, ten lepers earnestly long for healing since leprosy was one of the great curses of their time, causing those who suffered from the disease to live apart from family and friends. All ten turned to Jesus in faith with their request. However, after they are healed, only one of the ten returns to thank him for answering their prayer.

While Jesus makes it clear that it was the man's faith that healed him, the story has another lesson as well. Although we must begin our prayer requests in faith, they should end in gratitude. All too often, we are quick to make requests, but slow to return in thankful prayer. Like the nine lepers who did not come back, we neglect to express our thanks to God when our prayers are answered. However, thankfulness is a hallmark of a true disciple. "In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus." ~Thessalonians 5:18
School will be closed tomorrow, Monday, October 7th, in observance of Columbus Day.

Progress Reports will be distributed to students next week. Please note that an additional week has been provided to allow teachers more time to thoughtfully review and assess each child's progress. The i-Ready results will be included with the Progress Reports.

As part of our ongoing commitment to student wellness, we are excited to announce that we will be implementing a new health program this year. Our teachers will participate in professional development and training over the next few weeks to ensure a strong and effective rollout. The program will officially begin in the second trimester. The week will end with a fun-filled evening at the Fathers' Club Sports Night for students in Grades K-4, held in the school gym:

- Grades K-2: 6:45-7:45 p.m.
- Grades 3-4: 8:00-9:00 p.m.

Wishing you and your families peace and blessings on this 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Focus on Religious Freedom

www.cffor.org

Petitions for the Protection of the Religious Faith and Practices of All Americans ...as put forth by the 1st Amendment and championed by American founders and Presidents George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and James Madison

For all Americans of faith, that the Creator who endowed each man with Freedom of Conscience and Religion will protect them in their faith and in their places of worship. Let us pray..

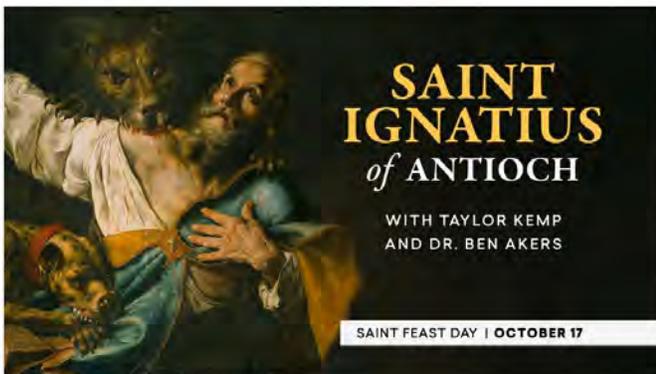

For all Americans that they will respect and protect the rights of their fellow men to religious freedom, as described by Pres. Thomas Jefferson when he wrote: "...religion is a matter that lies solely between a Man and his God. That he owes account to none other for his faith or his worship..." (Jefferson's Letter to the Danbury Baptists, 1802) Let us pray.

For all Americans to know they are protected from persecution by the Constitution and laws of our nation. Washington emphasized this freedom for Jews and all Americans when he quoted Micah 4:4 in his letter to the Hebrew Congregation of Newport: "May the children of the stock of Abraham who dwell in this land continue to merit and enjoy the good will of the other inhabitants - while every one shall sit in safety under his own vine and fig tree and there shall be none to make him afraid." Let us pray.

For all Americans, that the example and witness of their fellow citizens' faith and hope in God, may lead them to welcome the Father, Son and Holy Spirit into their hearts and minds. Let us pray.

For all Americans that they may kneel in prayer and stand in solidarity to protect those Americans persecuted for their works of charity and attacked as they gather for prayer. Let us pray.

"America! America! God mend thine every flaw.
Confirm thy soul in self-control. Thy liberty in law."

MISAS EN ESPAÑOL, Sábado - a las 7.30pm
(Misa del Domingo)

Martes - a las 7.30pm (comenzando con el Rosario
y confesión a las 7.00pm)

La Eucaristía es una acción de gracias a Dios. Hoy la Palabra que escucharemos nos llama a ser agradecidos con Dios por todo lo que hace en nuestra vida.

La fe en el Poder de la Palabra de Dios y nuestro agradecimiento son el trasfondo de las lecturas de hoy. Tanto el pasaje del segundo libro de los Reyes como el del evangelio proponen la confianza en la Palabra como actitud que conduce a la curación de la lepra y a una fe agradecida que alaba al Señor. El autor de la segunda carta a Timoteo habla de las cadenas que padece por el anuncio de un Evangelio que nadie puede encadenar. Con el salmo cantaremos y agradeceremos a Dios, a quien debemos escuchar atentos.

Con el episodio de los diez leprosos curados por Jesús, Lucas nos muestra el poder de Dios y el agradecimiento con el que se debe responder a todo lo que Dios hace en nuestro favor.
