Devotions

Eucharistic Adoration is the traditional Catholic practice of placing the consecrated host, the Blessed Sacrament, in a sun-shaped vessel called a Monstrance in order for the faithful to look upon Our Lord and pray to Him in peaceful contemplation. You are invited to join us every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 12:30pm to 6:00pm in the Adoration Chapel off of Clinton Ave for Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

The Holy Rosary is prayed after the 8:00 a.m. Mass Monday through Saturday.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul
 St. Agnes Cathedral Conference
 We Help People!

We hope you are enjoying this beautiful summer season and taking full advantage of the beaches and all the blessings Long Island offers.

We extend our deepest gratitude to the St. Agnes community for your unwavering generosity. Because of you, we are able to stand beside so many Rockville Centre neighbors who are struggling under the weight of rising inflation, job loss, and reduced work hours. Your support truly changes lives.

Recently, one of our neighbors saw their work hours cut so drastically that they could no longer keep up with rent. Their family was on the brink of losing their home.

Thanks to your kindness, the St. Vincent de Paul Society stepped in to help with their rent until new employment was secured. Today, that family is stable, safe, and back on their feet — a direct result of your compassion.

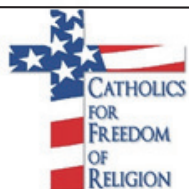

If you or someone you know would welcome a visit or a phone call from one of our Vincentians — to pray together, to talk, or simply to share companionship — please call the rectory at 516-766-0205, and they will reach out to us.

Thank you for continuing to be a source of hope for our neighbors in need.

St. Monica Parents Intercession Prayer Group

A Glaring Double Standard Holds Catholic Church Accountable for Abuse, While Shielding Public Schools

“Justice is indiscriminately due to all, without regard to numbers, wealth, or rank.”

- John Jay, Founding Father and First US Chief Justice

For the first time “a jury has delivered a verdict against New York City under the Child Victims Act,” awarding $18 million “to a man who was sexually abused by his elementary school music teacher over 50 years ago.” NY Post reports: <https://tinyurl.com/4c2kx56y>

This is long-delayed justice for children who, because they were abused in shielded public schools by immune government employees, previously had no civil recourse.

Yet even with New York public schools now subject to lawsuits under the Child Victims Act, a glaring double standard still exists between government institutions and private entities.

Civil awards and settlements for those abused in public schools will be paid neither by abusers, school officials who covered it up, nor the public school systems in which the abuse occurred. Taxpayers will foot the bill, although they had nothing to do with the abuse and little control over the bureaucrats who enabled it.

Contrast this with the Catholic Church, which has had to declare bankruptcy in many dioceses, selling off properties and assets, drastically reducing staff and ministries, closing schools and parishes to pay off abuse settlements and judgements. That innocent people would suffer from the loss of these Catholic services was held to be irrelevant. Harsh consequences were demanded for the Catholic Church and its personnel—as a matter of justice for abuse victims and incentive for urgently needed reforms.

The double standard persists as government bodies and personnel, on the other hand, experience no direct civil liability for institutional crimes and thus no urgency to implement the desperately needed reforms to protect children in public schools.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

LA CATEDRAL DE SANTA INÉS

MISAS EN ESPAÑOL, Sábado – a las 7.30pm
(Misa del Domingo)
Martes - a las 7.30pm
(comenzando con el Rosario
y confesión a las 7.00pm)

Nuestra reunión del domingo debe manifestar que somos una Iglesia acogedora, sin discriminaciones, porque también nosotros, extranjeros en tierra extraña, hemos sido acogidos por Dios, por eso celebremos jubilosos este banquete con Jesús, rey de todas las naciones.

Las lecturas de hoy hablan de la universalidad de la salvación. Mientras el profeta Isaías rompe el particularismo judío y abre la salvación a los extranjeros si guardan el sábado y practican la justicia, Jesús pone como única condición la fe; por eso Pablo nos dirá que todos podemos alcanzar misericordia. Ansiando esta salvación, el creyente reza con la estrofa del salmo: “Conozcan en la tierra tus caminos, tu salvación en todas las naciones”.

El pasaje del Evangelio de San Mateo, que hoy escucharemos, habla de una mujer pagana cuya fe es valorada por Jesús por encima de la fe de Israel. Dios no excluye a nadie de su plan de salvación universal.
