The Holy Rosary is prayed after the 8:00 a.m. Mass Monday through Saturday.

The Kerygma: Relationship - Knowing and Desiring God

Format:

35-40 Minute Lecture, followed by
20 Minutes for Questions and Open Discussion

Kerygma means “proclamation” and is the essential proclamation of the Good News of Jesus Christ handed on by the Apostles: that Jesus Christ, crucified and risen, is Lord and Savior, and that through faith in him and conversion of heart we receive forgiveness of sins and new life.

In this first session, we will explore the first part of the Kerygma—our relationship with God: His plan for the human person, and what it means to enter into a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and to live out that relationship within His Church.

THANK YOU FOR MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Thanks to all donor and volunteers for your support of our third 2026 blood drive on September 13. 63 pints were donated by 60 volunteer donors. NYBC will use your donations to address the Blood Supply Emergencies declared earlier this summer.

Our three 2026 blood drives collected 168 pints of blood, a 63% increase over 2025. This level of support was a significant accomplishment by our loyal cadre of previous donors. However, we need to add new donors to replace donors who can no longer donate.

Two reasons that motivated me to become a blood donor 55 years ago were:

- 3% of the US population provides 100% of blood donations.
- Blood Donors save lives.

Consider joining the 3% that provides 100% of the blood supply! Questions on becoming a blood donor, please call me John Madson on 516 306-9127 or go to NYBC.org.

The 2027 St. Agnes Blood Drive schedule will be available in the bulletin by yearend.

Principal's Announcements

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

St Agnes School: Pray Beautifully, Live Beautifully

This Sunday's Gospel reminds us that God's generosity does not depend on when we begin, how much we have done, or how we compare ourselves to others. Like the workers in the vineyard, each of us is invited to respond to God's call, trusting that His love and generosity are given freely and abundantly.

At St. Agnes Cathedral School, our students are learning each day that we all have a place in God's vineyard. Whether they are just beginning their journey in Kindergarten or preparing to graduate, each child is valued, loved, and called to use his or her gifts to make a difference. To pray beautifully is to recognize God's goodness; to live beautifully is to share that goodness with others.

As we begin another week together, may we encourage our children to be grateful for what they have, generous with one another, and mindful that God has a special purpose for each of them. May we continue to Pray Beautifully and Live Beautifully in all that we say and do. Wishing our students, families, and parish community a wonderful and blessed week ahead!

St. Agnes Cathedral School News

This week the students in grades 1-8 will begin the iReady Diagnostic 1 Assessment. The students should come to school well-rested, eat a nutritious breakfast, have their iPads/Chromebooks fully charged and earphones/earbuds with them every day.

Mothers' Club

The Mothers' Club is also preparing for its annual Garden Potpourri on Sunday, October 4th, a wonderful fall tradition featuring mums, pumpkins, crafts, food, vendors, and family fun. Volunteers are always welcome to help make this special event a success!

St. Agnes Goes Gold

In recognition of Pediatric Cancer Awareness Month, St. Agnes Cathedral School is proud to partner with the Mary Ruchalski Foundation to raise awareness and support families affected by pediatric cancer. Mary was a beloved St. Agnes student whose family established the foundation in her memory. Throughout September, our school community will participate in special activities to help support this important cause.

A Reminder to Volunteers

We are grateful for all those who generously volunteer their time to support our students and school. Please remember that Virtus training is required for anyone who volunteers with children.

Thank you to our parishioners for your prayers, encouragement, and support of our students, families, teachers, and administration at St. Agnes Cathedral School. I look forward to all that we will accomplish together as we continue to nurture our children in faith, knowledge, and love.

Peace and blessings to you and your families on this 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA LA CATEDRAL DE SANTA INÉS

MISAS EN ESPAÑOL,
Sábado – a las 7.30pm
(Misa del Domingo)
Martes - a las 7.30pm
(comenzando con el Rosario
y confesión a las 7.00pm)

Estamos ya en el vigésimo quinto domingo dentro del Tiempo Ordinario, y la liturgia nos trae una parábola digna de profunda meditación sobre las tarifas que Dios tiene para premiar nuestro trabajo en su viña. Nuestros planes no son los suyos. La justicia y la bondad de Dios sobrepasan nuestros cálculos humanos.

Las lecturas de este domingo nos traen un mensaje bastante desconcertante porque es grande la distancia entre los proyectos de Dios y los nuestros, como dice Isaías. Y tal como sugiere el evangelio, en todo momento el Señor sobrepasa hasta el infinito nuestras mezquinas expectativas. Hoy nos llama a trabajar por su reino, a todos, sin importar la etapa de nuestra vida.

Mediante una parábola desconcertante, porque los caminos de Dios no son nuestros caminos, Jesús quiere hoy mostrarnos el retrato de un Dios que es bondad y misericordia.
